

Hull Happenings

What's Happening this Week in 1H!

Elizabeth Ide
Elementary School

Week Of:
May 7 - May 11

Reading: Next week we will be reading the story, Fireflies for Nathan. This story is about a boy who goes to his grandparents house and wants to catch fireflies like his daddy did when he was little.

Sight Words:

already caught against

Comprehension Strategies:

Summarizing, making connections, and sequencing

Phonics:

The sound of "o" can be spelled four different ways: o, al, au, aw (such as the words - on, all, August, awesome)

Spelling:

Our next test is Fri. May 18th:
bad vet fact all talk
walk small made their beanstalk

Math:

The children were assessed on their telling time skills to the hour and half hour last week. The results were in their folders. Please look it over to see if they had any difficulties. As you know, telling time is a life-long skill the students need to continue practicing.

I can't thank the PTO and all of you enough for making me feel so special during Teacher Appreciation Week! I loved receiving all the candy, flowers, pictures, and cards this week from the students. We also were treated to lunch everyday. For those of you who cooked for us, it was fabulous! I've said over and over how wonderful the parents and children are in District 66. I treasure your kind words so very much! Thank you!

Special Points:

For our ABC school countdown next week, the students will enjoy:

K - Kid's Choice

L - Lion Day! Wear Ide shirt/or school colors

M - Music Day

N - Neatness Day

O - Outside Day!

Teacher Talk

We will be taking our last 1st grade field trip on Tuesday, May 15th (9-2pm) to Blackberry Farm in Aurora, IL. Please make sure to dress your child in comfortable clothes and shoes. Each child will also need a sack lunch that can be thrown away after we eat that afternoon. Thank you!

Looking Ahead:

Happy Mothers Day!
I wish all of you a happy and restful Mother's Day with your families. You've done such a great job raising wonderful children. You deserve a day filled with happiness, peace, and love!
